Photoshop: Project 7 – Celebrity Steroids

Name:

Instructions:

Your task is to splice the head of a celebrity onto the body of a bodybuilder. You will need to use layer masks in order to get the best results. Do your best to match the colour, lighting, and the skin texture as closely as possible when making your switch. Please include the name of your subject on your image. Your image can be constructed with Internet graphics (try to find high resolution images whenever possible), stock art, and/or scanned images.

You will be marked according to the following criteria (10 marks):
